【到達目標】

Alongside our study of Ozu Yasujiro, students will develop the skills and confidence to give many varieties of video presentations in English.

Students will undertake group research projects and prepare scripts for their presentations.

Students will reach the stage at which they can complete a video presentation.

Students will then organize a presentation to be delivered at a national conference in December.

【授業の概要】

Following on from our research on documentaries in the first semester, this semester we will study the films of Ozu Yasujiro.

Final projects will be student-produced documentary videos and presentation of the documentaries at a conference on Japan issues in Tokyo.

The class will instruct students about video presentations, interviews, group and individual work projects, story boards, script writing and different forms of self-expression.

Our goal is to give a presentation at a student conference in November/December
