

The 15th Annual Student Meeting of the Consortium of Universities in Hachioji Judging Criteria

Each presentation is evaluated comprehensively based on the following criteria.

(Five-point Likert scale evaluation)

Judging criteria①

<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Oral presentation in Japanese at one of the general sessions• Oral presentation in English• Poster presentation• Exhibition presentation
<ul style="list-style-type: none">A) The presentation demonstrated usefulness, applicability, and expansibility, as well as an expectation for a contribution to the advancement of the relevant research field.B) The presentation included unique, novel aspects.C) The presentation was impressive, well-organized, and skillfully performed.D) The presenters answered each question clearly and appropriately.

Judging criteria②

<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Oral presentation in Japanese at the city-policy-proposal session• Oral presentation in Japanese at the agriculture-food-proposal session• Oral presentation in Japanese at the tourism-proposal session
<ul style="list-style-type: none">A) The presentation demonstrated usefulness, applicability and expansibility.B) The presentation suggested realizable aspects, ideas, or path about how to realize them.C) The presentation included unique, novel aspects.D) The presentation was impressive, well-organized, and skillfully performed.E) The presenters answered each question clearly and appropriately.

Judging criteria③

Oral presentation in Japanese at the proposal-to-Mayor session
<ul style="list-style-type: none">A) The presentation suggested a new proposal or rediscovered a possibility, in order to make Hachioji more attractive or advance it.B) The presentation suggested realizable aspects or ideas about how to realize them.C) The presentation contained a fresh, original, and creative proposal, typical for students.D) The presentation was impressive, well-organized, and skillfully performed.E) The presenters answered each question clearly and appropriately.